

1st Annual Pittsburgh Continental Philosophy Conference.

Approaching the Liminal. Pushing the Boundaries of Continental Philosophy

26–27 September 2014

Duquesne University
Simon Silverman Phenomenology Center
600 Forbes Avenue, First Floor Gumberg Library
Pittsburgh, PA 15282

Keynotes: Tom Sparrow (Slippery Rock University), Erik Garrett (Duquesne University).

The Pittsburgh Continental Philosophy Network is pleased to announce the 1st Annual Pittsburgh Continental Philosophy Conference. Towards the end of interdisciplinary collaboration, this conference invites contributions from a range of disciplines including philosophy, psychology, religious studies, theology, communication, rhetoric, and sociology, among others. We will accept paper and panel proposals on any topic relevant to continental philosophy, and particularly encourage those which seek to cross the bounds between multiple disciplines or which push a given discipline toward or beyond its limits.

Areas of Interest include, but are certainly not limited to:

- . Phenomenology
- . Deconstruction
- . Psychoanalysis
- . Psychology
- . Technology
- . Communication
- . Rhetoric
- . Embodiment
- . Feminism
- . Race and Whiteness Studies
- . Disability Studies
- . Ethics
- . Sociology
- . Cultural Studies
- . Queer Theory
- . Sexuality
- . Philosophy of Science
- . Speculative Realism
- . Religion
- . Theology
- . Ecology
- . Politics

Information about the Conference and Network can be found at:

<http://www.pittsburghphilosophy.com>

Submission Information.

15 June 2014: Paper and panel proposal submission deadline.

31 July 2014: Notification of acceptance.

Include: name, academic affiliation, current position, and contact information.

500 word limit for abstracts.

For panels, include individual paper abstracts, as well as a panel abstract.

Final presentations should be 15 minutes and should also allot 10 minutes for questions and discussion (25 minutes total per presentation).

Paper and panel proposals should be sent as an attached MS Word document or PDF file to:

pittsburghphilosophy@gmail.com

Sponsors:

Pittsburgh Continental Philosophy Network

Simon Silverman Phenomenology Center

Point Park's Confluence Psychology Alliance

